

Fedderson's father

CHRISTIAN FEDDERSEN
Christian Feddersen was born July 1st 1849 at Overby Slesvig, Denmark, and died at his home in Marquette, September 5th, 1927, attaining the age of 78 years, 2 months and 4 days. He was confirmed in the Lutheran church of Dostrup Slesvig at the age of 15. He and his mother were charter members of the St. John's Lutheran church east of Marquette of which church he was a member at the time of his death.

He came to America in the fall of 1867 locating at Dwight, Illinois. He united in marriage with Miss Anna Solbeck of Dwight, Illinois May 2nd, 1873. To this union three sons and four daughters were born. In 1878

Mr. and Mrs. Feddersen came to Nebraska over what is known today as the "covered wagon route". They located in Hamilton county where they made their home until 1917 when they moved to Marquette to spend their declining days. Out on the frontier of our American life, struggling with numerous hardships and adversities, these pioneer people acquired the fundamental qualities that have made our nation what it is today.

Mr. Feddersen leaves to mourn his departure, one sister, Mrs. Anna Pearson, of Burwell, Nebraska, two sons, Louis of Dannebrog and Christian of Marquette; four daughters, Mrs. Dr. J. Jensen of Cedar Falls, Iowa, Mrs. Carl Gjerloff of Marquette, Mrs. Chas. Coon of Fruitland, Idaho, Mrs. Ivan Neble of Marquette, 20 grandchildren and a large group of friends. Mrs. Feddersen passed away from this life in 1919 and a son Otto in 1920.

In his daily life Mr. Feddersen was simple and plain, devoid of artifice or ostentation. Unusually blessed in his domestic relations, he found his happiest hours in his garden, among his flowers and with the loved ones of his household. During the last year of his life, his health gradually failed, but when he came to meet the inevitable hour he met it with christian fortitude and grace. Mr. Feddersen was a kind and friendly man and will be missed by all who know him.

Services were held from the home at 2:00 p. m. Thursday afternoon, and at 2:30 p. m. from St. John's Lutheran church at Kronborg, conducted by Rev. Holger Strandskov of the Lutheran church and Rev. W. S. Henry, Pastor of the United Brethren church at Marquette.

Lauritz's mother

En dansk Pionerkvinde i Nebraska
Mrs. Anne Feddersen, Gustru i Chris Feddersen i Marquette, Neb., er afskaaret ved Døden efter flere Mars Svaghed.

Vegtparret Feddersen, der er Sønderlyder af Fødsel, kom med de første Sættlere til Hamilton County, hvor deres Hjem blev aabent Hus for alle, som søgte det. De blev aktive i det danske Kirkeliv, og aldrig søgtes de forgæves om Raad og Daad. Naar Feddersen blev den succesfulde Farmer, han er, skyldes dette ikke mindst hans Gustru, der, før Svaghed angreb hende, altid var aktiv. En Dødsbed, som gennem Marens tilstog, bidrog til, at hun fastede sig over Læstning, og lidet var det, der foresaldt i Verden, som hun ikke vidste Væfede om. Men hendes Mand, hendes Barn, der alle har nydt en udmærket Opdragelse, og hendes Hjem var hendes højeste i Livet.

Før et Par Aar siden flyttede Feddersen og Gustru ind til Byen, overladende deres to prægtige Farme til deres to Sønner; men forinden disse Farme ejer Feddersen en Mand best for Byen.

Vegtparrets yngste Datter er gift med Cybind M. Neble, en anden Datter er gift med den kendte Dr. Jensen i Cedar Falls og en tredje med Carl Gjerloff i Marquette, medens en fjerde er gift og bor i Idaho.

Early Pioneer

Dies In Iowa

Jenny

Mrs. C. S. Gjerloff of Marquette, received a message telling of the death of her aunt, Mrs. A. S. Hansen at Cedar Falls, Iowa, last Saturday, at the age of 80 years.

A few of the early settlers will remember Mrs. Hansen as Marie Solbeck, who, born in Slesvig, Denmark, came to Aurora in 1878. For several years she clerked in a pioneer store operated on the northeast corner of the square by John Rabben. On December 12, 1884, she was married to Rev. A. S. Hansen and they later moved to Omaha where Rev. Hansen held the pastorate of the Danish Lutheran church for a few years. In 1890 they moved to Cedar Falls, Iowa, where they have since resided. Mr. Hansen's death occurred 2 years ago. Surviving are two sons, Hans and Thorvald, and one daughter Laurentza, all of Iowa. One son, Ernest, died in the World War. Mrs. Hansen was a sister of the late Mrs.

Otto - Lauritz's youngest brother

Ellu Feddersen, som af den veltendte og en af de første danske Sættlere ved Marquette, Neb., Chr. Feddersen, afgik i forrige Uge ved Døden efter længere Tids Sygdom. Otto Feddersen var kendt som en meget dygtig Farmer, en elskovrdig og brød Mand og kærlig Familie-fader.

Otto Feddersen henlaa i nogen Tid paa et herbrerende Hospital, men da der intet Haab var for Helbredelse, forlangte han at blive bragt Hjem og dø hos sine Aere.

Dette Dødsfald er et haardt Slag for særlig den Udsødes Gustru og Børn, og hans gamle Fader, hvis Gustru for kort Tid siden døde.

"Pioneer" en sender sin Sympathi til den sorgende Familie.

Lauritz's sister Christina

From Monday's Daily.

The funeral of Master Christian Richardt Jensen, who died at the home of his parents at 1:30 Saturday afternoon, occurred at ten o'clock from the home on Bluff street and at 10:30 from the Bethlehem church. The pastor Rev. N. P. Gravengaard and Dr. A. S. Hansen, each made addresses. The service was largely attended and the remains were laid away at Greenwood. There were many flowers which told of the popularity of the little boy in this community.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Jensen have the sympathy of all their friends in the loss of the little son. He was born on March 14, 1903, and was an exceptionally bright, intelligent and friendly child and had already displayed musical talent to a great degree. He has been failing for some months and was siezed with an acute attack but a short time before he passed away.

When Otto died, his wife was to remarry - a daughter insisted. She
